

Biblins off Grid Adventure

Woodcraft Folk
Education for Social Change since 1925

Explore the Wye Valley and our beautiful back to basics campsite. This is a chance to explore the outdoors on your doorstep. With experienced staff you will be supported to navigate through and learn about the woodland environment surrounding Biblins.

Explore through:

Team challenges and collaborative activities

Creative forest activities and orienteering challenges

Explore ways to make our own electricity

Keep warm and cook over a fire built using ancient techniques

Explore the forest at night searching for bats and other wildlife

Spend the night in one of the Biblins Bell tents.

Wake up to a cooked breakfast and a further day of exploration.

Overview

This is a one night exploration aimed at year 5 or 6

Through collaborative activity areas covered include, resilience and wellbeing, our environment and sustainability, the science of generating renewable energy as well as active lifestyles and PE.

1. To have an opportunity for young people to spend the night under canvas, possibly a first for some, and participate in well thought through activities that will challenge individually and through group achievement helps to build relationships and resilience.
2. To learn about the environment on our doorstep and take part in fun creative activities to inspire an enjoyment of and appreciation for the outdoors.

This is a two day, one night programme, for a class size group. Food is cooked on site and provided by professional caterers, accommodation is in Camp Koodoo that comprises of Bell tents, a Marquee and kitchen tent. All instructors are experienced, trained, First aid qualified and hold a current DBS.

All you need to bring is clothes and an overnight bag, a sleeping bag and lots of enthusiasm.
